Living With Support

Founder
November 2023 - Present (2 years 7 months)

Living With Support is an online platform offering lifestyle resources to those living with Endometriosis, Adenomyosis & pelvic pain.

After over 20 years of lived-experience with Endometriosis, Adenomyosis & pelvic pain, I took the opportunity to develop a platform that will offer direct connections for patient to practical solutions for symptom management. I have always been passionate about building businesses and am intrigued by humans and drawn to help them in some way - and this platform allows me to do both.

If you are a practitioner interested in featuring your service on our website, please reach out - we are in the foundation stages and would love to include you in our launch pilot next year.

Taboo Period Products

Customer Sales Co-ordinator

September 2024 - August 2025 (1 year)

Adelaide, South Australia, Australia

This was an incredible transition role back into the Adelaide market, taking care of TABOO's customer service and logistics. It gave me a greater understanding of operating a social impact organisation.

I managed customer queries regarding TABOO's products and services, managed and packed online orders, replenished stock from the warehouse, liaised with postal services or direct to clients. I also worked on design & print management of merchandise and POS, and supported on finances & record keeping including quoting, invoicing, forecasting and stocktaking.

Concoction

Project Manager

September 2022 - March 2023 (7 months)

Auckland, New Zealand

This was a contract role responsible for a Goldpine Industries' rebrand project.

My main responsibility was the project management of all deliverables across design, production & store implementation - print and digital asset design, catalogues, in-store POS, website, social media, internal communication assets, stationary, vehicles, store signage, uniforms, product packaging.

The role encompassed management of key internal and external stakeholders and creating and managing relationships with key suppliers, creative team management, retail store asset auditing & store fitouts as well as the development of the launch media plan and rollout.

Cheil New Zealand

Senior Communications Manager

April 2021 - September 2022 (1 year 6 months)

Auckland, New Zealand

Client: Samsung

In this role I was the agency comms representative for Samsung. This encompassed retail retainer account management, working with clients, channel partners & external stakeholders, POS management brand-wide including strategy, design & optimisation.

I managed print & production of POS, fixtures & merchandise and co-ordinated digital & OOH campaign development and asset management. I project managed In-store events, activations and outdoor large scale events.

In this time, I was promoted from Marketing Account Manager responsible for the mobile portfolio to managing the full product portfolio across Samsung's electronics range.

Mondelēz International

Merchandiser

May 2020 - April 2021 (1 year)

Auckland, New Zealand

I took this role on throughout the COVID lockdown period which gave me a greater understanding of the retail landscape and end-to-end processes in the FMCG industry.

Awarded Merchandiser of the Month in July 2020 for outstanding contributions to the Snacking Made Right agenda.

YMCA of Auckland Inc

Marketing Specialist

January 2019 - November 2019 (11 months)

Auckland, New Zealand

As the team leader for the Children's product portfolio, I developed the marketing plan and comms plan for the acquisition and retention of memberships. Working with individual centres on their goals, I supported them to align with the core values of the organisation and offer the market a consistent brand and communication style.

By increasing communication, we saw an instant lift in retention of term-by-term memberships. I led the execution of the New Zealand Principal's

Federation conference sponsorship including expo stand development and events for attendees.

A large focus was on developing the website to improve SEO effectiveness and the customer journey, development of digital campaigns and eDMs - amongst other priorities.

Unfortunately this role ceased to a redundancy within a company-wide restructure.

Design Intoto Pty Ltd

Senior Account Manager

May 2018 - December 2018 (8 months)

Sydney, Australia

Clients: KFC Australia, Yum! Brands, Restaurant Brands, Event Cinemas, Compass Group

With KFC Australia head office & national franchisees, I worked on creative campaigns for launching new products nationally and testing in local markets, produced POS & OOH creative, shopper marketing, developed digital & print menus and managed a franchisee website CRM system.

I developed the Parlour Lane Choc Top Co brand & product packaging that now is sold at Event Cinemas.

I departed Design Intoto for the opportunity to move to New Zealand and take on the role at YMCA.

Creative & design agency.

Media Merchants

Senior Account Manager

May 2016 - May 2018 (2 years 1 month)

Sydney, Australia

Clients: Betta Home Living, Sony, Midas (Automotive Brands Group), Costco, NARTA, Good Price Pharmacy

In this role I led the creative management of the Australia-wide Betta Home Living electrical & furniture retail group account with head office and franchisees. This encompassed digital campaign & content development, catalogue production, branding campaigns, local area marketing, website development, TVC & radio ad production, magazine & print production.

I worked with various other clients on developing e-commerce websites, including supporting the launch of National Product Review website, OOH campaigns, consumer promotions & more.

Full service creative agency including media buying.

ARCHIBALD / WILLIAMS

Account Manager

August 2015 - April 2016 (9 months)

Sydney, Australia

Clients: News Corp Australia- The Australian and Metropolitan Newspapers

A key focus was on the creative development of ATL and digital campaigns to grow the print & digital subscriptions for News Corp's metropolitan newspaper brands Australia-wide. I was promoted to work with The Australian newspaper division on branding campaigns and the deployment of eDMS to retain memberships. I also managed an Account Executive throughout this time.

This role gave me a great entry into the Sydney market, but I was eager to get back into a full service agency role with higher level responsibility.

Creative agency.

Impressive Advertising

Account Manager

September 2009 - August 2015 (6 years)

Adelaide, Australia

Clients: Drakes Supermarkets, Lion Dairy & Drinks, Romeo's Retail Group, Foodland, Adelaide Thunderbirds, Netball SA + others

This role encompassed all aspects of advertising & marketing. Working with Australia's largest independent supermarket group, I led the account to substantial growth in South Australia & Queensland which led to a promotion from Account Executive. A large focus was on end-to-end development of consumer promotions & events, shopper marketing, POS & catalogue production, local area marketing, conferences and branding campaigns.

As well, I worked with a range of clients on business VI development and rebrands, media buying & planning, website development, photography, creative production... the list goes on!

Impressive gave me an incredible foundation for my career, and I took the opportunity to move to Sydney to progress my career.

Full service accredited creative agency including media buying.

IKEA Australia

Marketing Administrator

January 2006 - July 2009 (3 years 7 months)

Adelaide, Australia

Promoted from Sales Co-worker, this marketing role was focused on developing and running in-store events to attract new visitors and encourage repeat visits to increase sales conversion. This included events focussed on children and educational seminars targeted at adults - sometimes presenting the seminars myself! In addition, I ran staff events for over 500 attendees, managed the website & databases and worked with the ad agency on catalogue development, press ads, TVCs.

As a first-hire for IKEA Adelaide, initially I was part of the store opening team and worked on the build of the store displays and interior design projects. My focus was on designing and selling Kitchens, then when promoted to Team Leader, managing stock levels, merchandising of the 'Accessories Shop', developing department layouts and training new co-workers.
